

All AG Composites' stocks come with an aluminum bar installed inside the forend.

These photos depict the general placement of the aluminum.

This aluminum can be drilled and tapped allowing rails to be mounted.

We use a #21 drill bit for the pilot hole followed by a 10-32 thread tap

Alpine Hunter

Chalk Branch

Visigoth

